

Confederate Names Task Force
Task Force Schedule
September 16, 2021

Date	Agenda Focus	Notes
August 16 Virtual	Information Sharing and Logistics Sharing TF Charter and mission Developing Ground Rules Adoption of Remote Participation Policy Adoption of Schedule & meeting times
September 13 Virtual	Speaker: Historical context – What was happening when Lee Hwy and Lee Jackson Mem Hwy were named?	Speaker: Historian Brent Tarter
September 20 Virtual	Update on Community Engagement Plans  Dialogue on the Big Picture: Desired Community and Key Principles
October 11	Review of Roadway map for Lee Highway and Lee-Jackson Memorial Highway  Identifying Other Jurisdictions’ Approaches  Discussion of Impact of these approaches on Fairfax County’s Approach (if any)  Discussion of Community Engagement Process – next steps - logistics	Staff Briefing
October 18	Discussion of Perspectives on Highway Names (Using Principles the Task Force Identified)	Goal is for community engagement process to happen October 20- November 5
November 8	Discussion of Community Input &amp; Recommendations What stands out to us about the community perspectives we are hearing?  Determine recommendation for whether to change the street names

November 15	Recommendation refinement (Development of Options)          If the group is recommending changing the names, identify the top 10 alternatives for each road Task small group to work with Chair and staff to develop report
December 13	Refinement of options and report          Narrow down the list of alternative names from 10-5 Adoption of final report
December 20	Adoption of final language in report, planning for next steps with Board
January 2022	Meet with Board to share recommendations &amp; report	